TSCHOUDNOWSKY has actually been the one who talked to the "Sub-Source" of Spot report No. 42. - He is likely to appear on other future Spot Reports, so some information on his background is in order.

TSCHOUDNOWSKY is a White Russian who left Russia in 1920 and settled in Yugoslavia, and later became prefect of the Belgrade police. At the time of German invasion of Yugoslavia he was arrested and spent some time in German concentration camp, later released when his anti-Soviet background became known to the Germans.

He is now working as an assistant security officer for UNHRA Hq at Passau (Address: UNHRA Billets, Munich/Laim, Bldg. 3, Appt. 5).

He was born 16.4.1888 in Russia. Is married (wife also now in Munich), has no children. He is well acquainted with the White Russian Colony of Yugoslavia. Most of the people mentioned in my Spot Report No. 33, including GRESKOV, the informant, are known to him.
